

Critical Care DEN

---

Researcher's information:

|                |  |
|----------------|--|
| Name           | Dr Kalliopi (Claire) Kydonaki  |
| Work position  | Lecturer in Adult Nursing, School of Nursing, Midwifery & Social Science |
| Academic title | Dr   |
| Work address   | Edinburgh Napier University, Sighthill Campus, Sighthill Court, EH11 4BN |
| Email          | C.Kydonaki@napier.ac.uk  |

|                                     |   |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| Title of thesis              | Decision-making processes of weaning from mechanical ventilation. A comparative ethnographic insight into the dynamics of the decision-making environment. |
| Institution and year awarded | University of Edinburgh, 2011   |

Research:

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Main research interests/research problem/s | Mechanical ventilation and weaning from mechanical ventilation, decision-making theory, sedation, physical recovery from critical illness, families of critically ill patients, involvement in care, psychological recovery of critically ill patients and families, person-centred care, quality improvement. |
| Methodologies                                  | Ethnography, qualitative methodology, action research, process evaluation, mixed methods   |
| Publications link                              | http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed?term=Kydonaki%5Bauthor%5D&amp;cmd=detailsearch  |